1 Introduction

This policy is aimed at candidates who are registering to take a PeopleCert exam. It sets out the identification (ID) requirements you must meet to take an online exam with live invigilation, or a classroom-based exam (including a SELT LANGUAGECERT® exam).

2 ID requirements when registering for an online exam

When you register for your online exam, you are required to provide ID information.

You must ensure that the First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name you use to register for your online exam exactly matches the ID document that you will present on the day of your online exam.

When you complete your online exam registration you must complete the First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name fields in English-language letters (Latin Characters) – this is a mandatory requirement. If you wish you can add your First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name in your native language as well.

On the day of your exam as part of the exam onboarding process, you will need to upload photographic evidence of the ID you used to register for your exam.

You must use one of the forms of ID listed in section 2.2 below.

2.1 ID Document Requirements for online exams

You are responsible for ensuring the ID used to register and take your exam is valid and acceptable. On the day of your exam if you do not present valid and acceptable ID, or the First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name of your ID does not exactly match the name you used to register for your exam, you will not be allowed to test and will not be entitled to a refund. You will, however, be able to re-book your exam following the standard exam booking process. If you re-book, you must ensure the ID you are using to register and take your online exam meets the requirements set out below.

Your ID document must:

- Be current and valid – ID documents containing dates that have expired are not allowed
- Be an original document; photocopies are not acceptable
- Include a recognisable photo of you
- Match the information you gave when you booked your online exam
- Be a government-issued national/state/province identity card that is recognised by the country in which you are a citizen or permanent resident
- Contain your birth date/year

Please note that electronic IDs will not be accepted.

2.2 Acceptable ID documents for online exams

The following types of ID are acceptable for registering and sitting an online exam with PeopleCert or LANGUAGECERT®:

- Driving Licence
- National ID Card
- Passport
- Registration Card/Certificate
- Residence Permit/Card

2.3 Candidates in Japan, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau

Some forms for ID, in addition to those listed above, are accepted for Japan, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau. These are listed in appendix A.

2.4 Using an ID document NOT Written in English-language Letters (Latin Characters)

Please note: ID documents NOT Written in English-language Letters (Latin Characters) will only be accepted in the languages where we offer a Proctor language preference.

If the ID document you are using to register for your online exam is an acceptable ID document but NOT written in English-language letters (Latin Characters), then as part of registering and booking your exam you must pick the correct Proctor language to match your own native language (When available<sup>1</sup>). For example, if your native language is Chinese and you are using an ID document that is NOT written in English-language letters (Latin Characters) but instead, is written in Chinese characters, then you must select your 'Proctor's language' preference to Chinese as shown in the example below (Available for certain modules only<sup>2</sup>). When booking your exam if the 'Proctor's language' or your language is not available as an option, you must:

- Send not less than 48 hours before your exam an image of your ID document for validation to customerservice@peoplecert.org and we will validate your ID document in accordance with our internal protocols.

<sup>2</sup> When booking your exam and selecting your Proctor language preference this is available for certain exam modules only as shown in the options of exam booking system.

If the ID document you are using to register for your online exam is an acceptable ID document but NOT written in English-language letters (Latin Characters), on the day of your exam your online Proctor will check and validate that the:

- ID document you are presenting is valid, acceptable and matches the ID details that you registered with
- First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name that you registered with in English-language letters (Latin Characters) is an accurate translation of your native language ID document. The details must be an exact match. If you use a 'preferred name' (e.g., a name you prefer to be known by) to register for your exam that does not exactly match the ID details you registered with, this will not be accepted.

3 ID requirements when registering for a classroom-based exam

If you are taking a classroom-based exam, your centre may register you directly through PeopleCert/LANGUAGECERT's exam administration system, or they may ask you to self-register online.

If you self-register, you must complete the First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name fields in English-language letters (Latin Characters) – this is a mandatory requirement. If you wish you can add your First/Middle Name(s) and Last Name in your native language as well.

3.1 ID Document Requirements for classroom-based exams

Whether you self-register, or are registered by your centre, you must have a form of ID which meets the requirements set out below.

Your ID document must:

- Be current and valid – ID documents containing dates that have expired are not allowed
- Be an original document; photocopies are not acceptable
- Include a recognisable photo of you
- Match the information you gave when you registered for your exam
- Be a government-issued national/state/province identity card that is recognised by the country in which you are a citizen or permanent resident
- Contain your Birth Date/Year

Please note that electronic IDs will not be accepted.

3.2 Acceptable ID documents for a classroom-based exam

The following types of ID are acceptable for registering and sitting a classroom-based exam with PeopleCert or LANGUAGECERT®:

- Driving Licence
- National ID Card
- Passport
- Registration Card/Certificate
- Residence Permit/Card

3.3 Candidates in Japan, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau

Some forms for ID, in addition to those listed above, are accepted for Japan, China, Taiwan, Hong Kong and Macau. These are listed in appendix A.

4 ID requirements when registering for a SELT exam

4.1 Acceptable ID document for a SELT exam

ID requirements for SELT exams are determined by the UK government. If you wish to register for a SELT exam you must have one of the following:

- Passport
- EU / EEA ID card
- Government ID card (this is only acceptable if you are testing in the country where they were issued)
- Valid Travel Document (emergency travel documents are excluded)
- Biometric Residence Permit
- Biometric Residence Card

If you are unable to produce one of these forms of ID for your test, you will not be able to take a SELT test.

4.2 ID Document Requirements for SELT exams

Your ID document must:

- Be current and valid – ID documents containing dates that have expired are not allowed
- Be an original document; photocopies are not acceptable
- Include a recognisable photo of you
- Match the information you gave when you booked your exam
- Be a government-issued national/state/province identity card that is recognised by the country in which you are a citizen or permanent resident
- Contain your Birth Date/Year

4.3 What to do if your passport is being held by the UK government

If your visa application is in progress, and the UK government holds the original copy of your passport or other ID you must talk to your immigration case worker about how to register for a SELT test. They will contact LANGUAGECERT® directly to confirm arrangements for you. You do not need to contact LANGUAGECERT® yourself, and it will not speed up your application if you do so.

5 Making changes to your ID details after registration

If you make a mistake when registering your ID details for a PeopleCert exam, you should contact our Customer Service team for help: customerservice@peoplecert.org
